Dear and Honored Mr. Garrison, I would be impertinent in me to write a long letter to you, or to ask for any thing, as an answer to this intrusion in time so valuable, but your name at full length, which I should so like to have as an autograph.— Saturday June 29, 1867 I shall never forget— It is among the "rich and happy memories of the past" — I felt I might risk to you kindness to excuse the liberty I took with my sister to shake hands with you at the close of the meeting — I really could not help it.

Yours most respectfully

Sarah Coggan

P.S. Years ago I lived at Welshesbury in London, and, by the assistance of friend ^{we} in the habit of publishing articles for the A.S. Bazaar of Boston to that noble woman,

Wm Weston Chapman -

My much loved friend Dr.
Hutton, used to forward the 'Liberator' to me with many prized remarks upon its articles —

To William L. Chapman Esq.

— If you will, send me name of the kind, you may request, will save a moment's time —

Miss Sarah Legan,
South Hackney,
July 2, 1869.
